

Statewide Transportation Improvement Program

VI. WEST VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION ORGANIZATION

The West Virginia Department of Transportation (WVDOT) is a decentralized agency consisting of a Central Office (with Aeronautics Commission; Public Port Authority; Parkways, Economic Development and Tourism Authority; and Divisions of Highways, Motor Vehicles, Public Transit) in Charleston, and State Rail Authority located in Moorefield. The spreadsheet listings address only projects programmed with Federal dollars initiated by the Divisions of Highways and/or Public Transit.

In general, these projects are funded with 80% federal funds and matched with 20% state and local resources.
